Historians as Nation Builders Dennis Deletant, Harry Hanak, 1988-06-18 A selection of papers from a conference held in honour of Professor Hugh Seton-Watson on the occasion of his retirement in 1983. Germany and the Second World War Ralf Blank, Jörg Echternkamp, Karola Fings, Jürgen Förster, Winfried Heinemann, Tobias Jersak, Armin Nolzen, Christoph Rass, 2008-07-03 The Second World War affected the lives and shaped the experience of millions of individuals in Germany - soldiers at the front, women, children and the elderly sheltering in cellars, slave labourers toiling in factories, and concentration-camp prisoners and POWs clearing rubble in the Reich's devastated cities. Taking a 'history from below' approach, the volume examines how the minds and behaviour of individuals were moulded by the Party as the Reich took the road to Total War. The ever-increasing numbers of German workers conscripted into the Wehrmacht were replaced with forced foreign workers and slave labourers and concentration camp prisoners. The interaction in everyday life between German civilian society and these coerced groups is explored, as is that society's relationship to the Holocaust. From early 1943, the war on the home front was increasingly dominated by attack from the air. The role of the Party, administration, police, and courts in providing for the vast numbers of those rendered homeless, in bolstering civilian morale with 'miracle revenge weapons' propaganda, and in maintaining order in a society in disintegration is reviewed in detail. For society in uniform, the war in the east was one of ideology and annihilation, with intensified indoctrination of the troops after Stalingrad. The social profile of this army is analysed through study of a typical infantry division. The volume concludes with an account of the various forms of resistance to Hitler's regime, in society and the military, culminating in the failed attempt on his life in July 1944.

Frieden im Ostseeraum Dirk Schleinert, 2022-06-13 Ausgehend vom 650. Jahrestag des Stralsunder Friedens von 1370 nimmt der Sammelband weitere Friedensschlüsse im Ostseeraum bis in das 20. Jahrhundert hinein in den Blick. Dazu gehören der Perleberger Frieden von 1420, der Stettiner Frieden von 1570, die Friedensschlüsse am Ende des Großen Nordischen Krieges 1720 oder auch der dänisch-deutsche Grenzvertrag von 1920. Er geht der Frage nach, was Frieden zum jeweiligen Zeitpunkt für die Vertragschließenden bedeutete. Im zweiten Teil des Bandes geht es um das Kriegsende 1945 aus der Sicht der Ostseeanrainer.

The Rise and Fall of American Technology Lynn G. Gref, 2010 He contrasts the commonly-held perception that the pace of technology is accelerating with the historical record. He highlights the people and the organizations which are responsible for America's technological largesse. The book follows the money to uncover the underlying trends. The beginning of a decline in technology development is detected using indirect indicators for clues. Impacts on the formation of companies, employment and productivity provide sobering reasons to enlighten others and demand a change in course. After considering the possibilities, the book proposes several constructive actions which avoid the proverbial tendency to throw more money at the problem. The goal of the book is to provoke discussion and promote action where appropriate. Americans' standard of living is at stake. Tech-savvy readers will want to understand this issue so as to influence others. Long-range thinkers will want to factor these considerations into their prognostications. The titans of the technology-based companies can develop new and improved strategies based on the findings of this book. And, our elected officials may want to act before a catastrophic disaster confronts the nation. This book will strike a chord with everyone who is interested in America's future economic health. Specific audience groups include scientists, engineers, entrepreneurs, employees in technology based companies, government and corporate policymakers deciding the future of research and development (R&D) programs, government workers involved in the execution of government R&D programs and those thinking about a career in R&D. It is complementary to such works as Politics and Economics in America: The Way We Came to Be, by Richard E. Carmichael (Krieger Publishing Company, 1998), which explores political and economic history in order to explain the emergence of the United States' world economic dominance. Carmichael's book makes recommendations on how government could assist America's businesses in maintaining our economic leadership, but it does not address any aspects of technology development and associated issues. Closing the Innovation Gap by Judy Estrin (McGraw Hill, 2009), provides business leaders with concepts for leading their organizations so as to close the innovation gap with competitors. It focuses on the innovation environment within the organization, whereas Dr. Gref addresses the complete technology development cycle, its financing, America's rise to global dominance, and the specter of a national decline.

Die Zerstörung Dresdens 13. bis 15. Februar 1945 Rolf-Dieter Müller, Nicole Schonherr, Thomas Widera, 2010

English summary: This volume presents the key findings of the Dresden Commission of Historians for the Ascertainment of the Number of Victims of the Air Raids on the City of Dresden on 13/14 February 1945, which sifted through, discussed and evaluated all the existing sources for the first time. The contributions discuss the historical records in the Dresden City Archive on the entire wartime situation at the time, the military significance of Dresden in Spring 1945, the death tolls from British air raids on other German cities and the number of foreign refugees who lost their lives during the bombing of Dresden. The report by the municipal archaeologists reveals findings from a systematic excavation of the old town of Dresden. An investigation was also conducted on the possibility that under the given conditions on 13th/14th February the heat was so intense that no trace of the victims was left. Other contributions discuss the issue of low-flying attacks and evaluate the memories of survivors of the air raids. The results are complemented by an account of the personal memories of Gotz Bergander. German text. German description: Dieser Band enthält die zentralen Ergebnisse der Dresdner

Historikerkommission zur Ermittlung der Opferzahlen der Luftangriffe auf die Stadt Dresden am 13./14. Februar 1945, die erstmalig sämtliche verfügbaren Quellen gesichtet, diskutiert und ausgewertet hat. Dabei handelt es sich um Beiträge zur Aktenüberlieferung im Stadtarchiv Dresden, zur damaligen Gesamtkriegslage, zur militärischen Bedeutung Dresdens im Frühjahr 1945, zur Zahl der Opfer infolge britischer Luftangriffe in anderen deutschen Städten sowie zur Anzahl auswärtiger Flüchtlinge, die bei der Bombardierung Dresdens ihr Leben verloren haben. Der Bericht über archäologische Grabungsbefunde zeigt Ergebnisse der Stadtarchäologie, die die Dresdner Altstadt systematisch erforschte. Geprüft wird auch, ob ruckstoffsloses Verbrennen von Menschen unter den Bedingungen des 13./14. Februar 1945 möglich war. Weitere Beiträge setzen sich mit der Frage der Tieffliegerangriffe auseinander und werten Erinnerungen von Überlebenden der Luftangriffe aus. Ergänzt werden die Resultate durch die persönlichen Erinnerungen Gotz Berganders.

Germany and the Second World War: pt. 1. German wartime society 1939-1945: politicization, disintegration, and the struggle for survival, 1990 This is the second in the comprehensive ten-volume Germany and the Second World War. The five volumes so far published in German take the story to the end of 1941, and have achieved international acclaim as a major contribution to historical study. Under the auspices of the Militärgeschichtliches Forschungsamt (Research Institute for Military History), a team of renowned historians has combined a full synthesis of existing material with the latest research to produce what will be the definitive history of the Second World War. This volume surveys the first year of the war deliberately begun by Nazi Germany. The authors examine the train of interconnected political and military events, and set military operations against the background of Hitler's war policy and general aims, both immediate and long term. The authors show that the conflict took a course quite different from that which Hitler had intended, but nevertheless resulted in a series of conquests for the Third Reich.

Army Group South Werner Haupt, 1998 After long years of studying sources and literature, Werner Haupt presents the military history of one of the larger theaters of World War II. The completion of the history of Army Group South is the result of the author's utilization of all available German and Russian literature, as well as those combat diaries and documents of the committed troop units that are available in German archives. In addition, the author was assisted in clearing up several questions by the advice of former members of the army group - from commanders to drivers. This third and final volume of a three volume set by Werner Haupt includes a volume each on Army Group North, Army Group Center, and now Army Group South. The author served in the German Army as a soldier and officer in the northern sector of the Eastern Front during the Second World War. He is also the author of Assault on Moscow 1941 (available from Schiffer Publishing Ltd.).

Command Of The Air General Giulio Douhet, 2014-08-15 In the pantheon of air power spokesmen, Giulio Douhet holds center stage. His writings, more often cited than perhaps actually read, appear as excerpts and aphorisms in the writings of numerous other air power spokesmen, advocates-and critics. Though a highly controversial figure, the very controversy that surrounds him offers to us a testimonial of the value and depth of his work, and the need for airmen today to become familiar with his thought. The progressive development of air power to the point where, today, it is more correct to refer to aerospace power has not outdated the notions of Douhet in the slightest. In fact, in many ways, the kinds of technological capabilities that we enjoy as a global air power provider attest to the breadth of his vision. Douhet, together with Hugh "Boom" Trenchard of Great Britain and William "Billy" Mitchell of the United States, is justly recognized as one of the three great spokesmen of the early air power era. This reprint is offered in the spirit of continuing the dialogue that Douhet himself so perceptively began with the first edition of this book, published in 1921. Readers may well find much that they disagree with in this book, but also much that is of enduring value. The vital necessity of Douhet's central vision-that command of the air is all important in modern warfare-has been proven throughout the history of wars in this century, from the fighting over the Somme to the air war over Kuwait and Iraq.

Dresden Frederick Taylor, 2009-04-10 Published to coincide with the bombing, this dramatic and controversial account completely re-examines the Allied attack on Dresden. For decades it has been assumed that the Allied bombing of Dresden was militarily unjustifiable, an act of rage and retribution for Germany's ceaseless bombing of London and other parts of England. Now, Frederick Taylor's groundbreaking research offers a completely new examination of the facts, and reveals that Dresden was a highly-militarized city actively involved in the production of military armaments and communications concealed beneath the cultural elegance for which the city was famous. Incorporating first-hand accounts, contemporaneous press material and memoirs, and never-before-seen government records, Taylor documents unequivocally the very real military threat Dresden posed, and thus altering forever our view of that attack.

Kriegsschauplatz Deutschland 1945 Jörg Echternkamp,2006 Die letzten Kriegsmonate: Front und 'Heimat-front' wurden eins. Zu dem Schrecken des Bom-benkrieges kam etwas bislang nie Erfahrenes: Nun bemächtigte sich auch der Landkrieg mit voller Wucht der deutschen Zivilbevölkerung. Bis heute war es besonders diese brutale und angstefüllte Endphase, die die Erinnerung der Deutschen an den Zweiten Weltkrieg geprägt hat. Echternkamp gibt eine durchstrukturierte Einführung in die gesamte Entwicklung von Ende 1944 bis Mai 1945. Durch die Auswertung eines besonderen Quellenfundes, nicht mehr zugestellter privater Briefe aus den letzten Kriegsmonaten, gelingt es ihm darüber hinaus, sehr anschaulich zu zeigen, wie unterschiedlich der Krieg auch inmitten der allgemeinen Not vom Einzelnen je nach Ort und Zeit erlebt und wahrgenommen werden konnte. Echternkamps Buch ist ein fesselnder und zugleich nüchterner Beitrag zur jüngsten Debatte über die deutsche Gesellschaft im Schatten des Krieges und der Niederlage.

The Case of California Laurence A. Rickels, 2001 Focusing on the changing image of the West Coast through such varied social and cultural artifacts as bodybuilding, group therapy, suicide cults, milk-carton images of missing children, teenage slang, and surf music, Laurence Rickels offers a dizzying psychohistory of the twentieth century as crystallized in the symbolic configuration called California and considered in relation to German modernism, national socialism, and Freudian psychoanalysis.

Lebensscherben - Hoffnungsspuren. Eine Familie aus Schlesien in den Stürmen des 20. Jahrhundert Bernhard R. Kroener, 2023-04-14 Lebensscherben - Hoffnungsspuren Eine Familiengeschichte im 20. Jahrhundert, erzählt anhand dreier Brüder, dreier Soldaten, dreier Schicksale. Der Militärhistoriker Prof. Dr. Bernhard Kroener spürt seinem Vater Werner und seinen beiden gefallenen Onkeln Bernhard und Johannes nach. Schon in den 1980er Jahren traf er als Student den Resistance-Kämpfer, der seinen Onkel ein Vierteljahrhundert zuvor erschossen hatte. Damals stand er vor dem Grab, das seinen eigenen Namen trug. Lange Jahre wuchs in ihm das Bedürfnis, diese Geschichte aufzuschreiben. Daraus ist eine dokumentarische Erzählung geworden, bei der er Briefe, Tagebucheintragungen und persönliche Erinnerungen mit zeitgleichen offiziellen Dokumenten wie etwa Personalakten oder Kriegstagebüchern zu einer Familiengeschichte miteinander verwebt. Es umfasst den familiären Hintergrund der drei zwischen 1911 und 1919 geborenen Brüder, ihren persönlichen und beruflichen Werdegang und beantwortet eine der Fragen, die sich spätere Generationen heute noch stellen: Wie erlebten junge Menschen in der formativen Phase ihres Lebens die Zumutungen der nationalsozialistischen Diktatur, das Grauen des Krieges und die Herausforderungen der unmittelbaren Nachkriegszeit? Ausgehend von bescheidenen Anfängen im ländlichen Oberschlesien schaffte die Familie einen mühsamen sozialen Aufstieg ins aufstrebende Bürgertum Breslaus. Durch den Ersten Weltkrieg und die nachfolgenden wirtschaftlichen Krisen drohte immer wieder der Abstieg in prekäre Lebenssituationen. Diese Angst vor weiterem wirtschaftlichen Verfall bestimmte die Handlungsspielräume und -alternativen der Brüder. Sie widerstanden einer eindeutigen Parteinahme für den Nationalsozialismus auch aufgrund der immunisierenden Wirkung einer über Generationen vermittelten religiösen Glaubensüberzeugung, doch verhinderte die anerzogene Staatsgläubigkeit eine dezidierte Opposition oder einen Widerstand gegen das Regime.
